Section C, E and I are intended to request and collect information consistent with the law requirements in Hong Kong. As a financial institution, the Company is not allowed to give tax advice. If policyowner has any questions on policyowner’s tax residence status and/or in answering Section C, E and I, please seek advice from independent tax adviser.

Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and jurisdictions have provided information on how to determine if policyowner is a tax resident in the jurisdiction. In general, policyowner will find that tax residence is the country/jurisdiction in which policyowner resides. Special circumstances may cause policyowner to be a tax resident elsewhere or a tax resident in more than one country/jurisdiction at the same time. For more information on tax residence, please consult a tax adviser or find the information at the Automatic Exchange of Information (“AEOI”) portal of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”). Policyowner’s domestic tax authority may provide guidance regarding how to determine the tax status.

If policyowner’s tax residence is located outside Hong Kong, the Company may be legally obliged to pass on the information in this form and other required information with respect to the policyowner’s Policy to the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong (“IRD”) and they may exchange this information with tax authorities of another jurisdiction or jurisdictions in which the policyowner may be tax resident pursuant to intergovernmental agreements to exchange relevant account/policy information.

Kindly note that the information so provided under Section C, E and I serve as policyowner’s self-certification and will remain valid unless there is a change in circumstances relating to information, such as policyowner’s tax residence status or other mandatory field information, that makes the information incorrect or incomplete. In that case, policyowner must notify the Company and provide an updated self-certification.

If there is any discrepancy or contradictory information are found during application/ due diligence process of the Company, the Company may clarify with policyowner and policyowner may be requested to provide an updated self-certification or provide explanation on the discrepancy if necessary. Failing to provide an updated self-certification or explanation to the Company, the Company may be required by law to provide the information in this Form and the other required information to the IRD.
